Social enhancing is important for students because it helps them develop social skills, which can lead to a number of benefits:

Communication: Social skills help students learn how to communicate effectively, listen, and advocate for themselves and others.

Empathy: Empathy is a critical social skill that helps students develop into caring and compassionate adults.

Teamwork: Socializing helps students learn to work in teams.

Emotional intelligence: Interacting with peers helps students develop emotional intelligence.

Real-world challenges: Socializing helps students prepare for real-world challenges.

Relationships: Social skills help students create and develop relationships.

Negative interactions: Social skills help students reduce the chance of negative interactions.

Diverse perspectives: Interacting with peers helps students develop diverse perspectives.

Our student shows their complete interest in gathering views of public on the given topics.

- ❖ OLD AGE HOME
- ❖ SOCIAL MEDIA
- ❖ ENVIRONMENT
- ❖ ELECTION

Many questions on the given topics were planned by the students and executed successfully. We are surprised to see the cooperation given by the public.

- While accumulating the views of public, our students interacted also with THASILDHAR of veppur. He shared his views and also advised the student community to become a best citizen by obeying rules and regulations of the government. He also wished our students to become great personals in different sectors.

SUMMER COOL PARTY 2024

- The aim was to create a fun-filled day for the students of Grade 1 to Grade 9 before they embarked on their summer break. The party consisted of a wide range of activities and festivities, ensuring that the students had a joyful and happy start to their holidays.
- Throughout the day, various engaging activities were organized within the classrooms, ensuring that the students remained entertained and involved.
- The day concluded with exciting games and the students relishing delicious snacks prepared by them. The celebration left the students with fond memories of their last day before the summer break.
